

Introduction

Hong Kong Venture Capital and Private Equity Association (HKVCPEA), established in 1987 represents more than 150 members involved in the venture capital/ private equity industry at all levels, from seed, startup, mezzanine, buyouts and restructuring - investing in the Asia-Pacific region.

Hong Kong is the hub for Asian private equity. PE funds in Asia had grown to US$190 billion in 2007 of which US$60 billion is based in Hong Kong.

Private Equity as Partner

HKVCPEA promotes venture capital and private equity as an asset class that provides not just money....

but value adds as a strategic partner in assisting in management, planning, marketing, financial advice, global connections that creates value in businesses and generating growth in the economy in Hong Kong, PRC and Asia as whole.

Private Equity

- Venture Capital
Companies that invest in early stage and high tech companies
- Growth Capital
Traditional growing companies
- Buyout / Management Buyout
Buying out controlling stake with management