- Panel Discussion: Enhancing Corporate Environmental Governance in HK

The conference will focus on recent developments in the field of corporate environmental governance and how companies and government agencies can position themselves more effectively to address environmental and sustainability issues. The objective is to provide a forum in Hong Kong for discussion of these crucial issues which have long term implications for the performance and competitiveness of both larger and small and medium enterprises. The emphasis will be on discussing the practical steps that companies can take to enhance their governance profile.
